TO
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
CASA GRANDE VALLEY BANK

which was filed in the office of said Arizona Corporation Commission on the 27th day of July, A. D. 1920, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., as provided by law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, The Arizona Corporation Commission, by its Chairman, has hereunto set its hand and affixed its Official Seal. (SEAL) Done at the City of Phoenix, the Capital, this 27th day of July, A. D. 1920.

Attest:
A. E. STELZER,
Secretary
ARIZONA CORPORATION COMMISSION
AMOS A. BETTS,
Chairman.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, the undersigned, being all of the stockholders and together owning and holding all the issued and outstanding shares, that is to say, two hundred and fifty shares, of the capital stock of the CASA GRANDE VALLEY BANK, a corporation whose articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the Arizona Corporation Commission on the 27th day of July, 1914, do by these presents assent to, affirm and ratify the increase in the amount of the authorized capital stock of this corporation from twenty-five thousand dollars, the present authorized capital stock, to one hundred thousand dollars, as authorized by the following amended articles of incorporation; and we hereby assent and agree that the original articles of incorporation be changed and amended as hereinafter set forth, and in lieu of said original articles of incorporation we do hereby assent to and adopt the following:

AMENDED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

1. The name of said corporation shall be

CASA GRANDE VALLEY BANK.

The place where its principal business is to be transacted is at the Town of Casa Grande, in Pinal County, State of Arizona, but offices of said corporation may be established within the State of Arizona at such place or places as its Board of Directors may designate, where meetings of stockholders and directors may be held, and any and all corporate business transacted.

2. That the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and the purposes for which such corporation is formed, are as follows:

(a) To engage in, carry on and conduct a general banking business.

(b) To accumulate and loan the funds of its stockholders and depositors, and to loan and invest the funds thereof, to receive deposits of money, to loan, invest and collect the same with interest, and to repay depositors with or without interest.

(c) To receive deposits, to discount, negotiate and deal in promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, securities and other evidences of debt; to loan money on personal or collateral security, and upon real and personal property; to make, issue, draw, accept, indorse, acquire, buy and sell any or all negotiable or transferable instruments and securities, including debentures, bonds, notes, bills of exchange and other evidence of debt; and to buy and sell securities, commercial paper, exchange, gold and silver bullion.

(d) To buy, sell, lire, lease, improve, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, exchange and generally deal in real and personal property of every kind, character and description, and to do this in the name of this corporation or its own behalf, or its agent for any person, partnership, association or corporation, public or private.

(e) To do a general brokerage business for itself and on its own behalf and for others. To act as agent, attorney in fact and representative of persons, partnerships, associations and corporations, and to act as agent, attorney in fact and representative of persons, associations and corporations doing a general life, fire, indemnity or accident insurance business.

(f) To act as executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depositary, escrow agent, trustee, and in any fiduciary capacity. To accept and execute all trusts of every description committed to it by any person or corporation, or by any court of record, to receive, take and hold title to real and personal estate and property on trusts and to execute such trusts; to act as agent and representative of persons, associations and corporations, both public and private, in reference to issuing, registering and transferring certificates of stock, bonds and other evidences of debt.

(g) To make, guarantee, or become surety upon bonds or undertakings required or authorized by law, or upon any other bond, undertaking or contract. To guarantee the payment of debts, obligations, bonds, mortgages, notes and securities of all kinds and at any place.

(h). To borrow money, and to pledge, mortgage, or hypothecate its bonds, evidences of debt, stock and securities, whether issued by itself or others, to secure payment of its indebtedness, or performance of its obligations.

(i) To collect for itself and for others debts and obligations of every kind and character. To enter into, perform and carry out contracts of every kind and for any lawful purpose.

(j) To own and manage safety deposit vaults, storage vaults and appliances and equipment for keeping and storing property; and to hire, let and lease boxes, safes and space therein. To receive, store and hold for others, personal property and securities with or without compensation.

(k) And generally to have power, and to do and perform, by itself, or agents to be appointed by it, and at any place, each and every act and thing necessary, suitable, incidental to, or proper for the accomplishment of any and all of the purposes, or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or which shall at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the protection or benefit of this corporation.

3. That the amount of the authorized capital stock of this corporation shall be One Hundred Thousand Dollars, and the number of shares into which it shall be divided is one thousand, of the par value of One Hundred Dollars each; which shall be paid in at such time or times as the Board of Directors may designate, in cash, real or personal property, services, household, option or contract to purchase, or in any other valuable thing or right; and all shares of capital stock when issued in exchange therefor shall thereupon and thereby become and be fully paid, the same as though paid for in cash at par value, and shall be non-assessable forever; and the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of any such property, right or thing acquired in exchange for capital stock shall be conclusive and binding.

4 That the term for which this corporation is to endure and exist is twenty-five years from and after the date of its incorporation, to-wit, the 27th day of July, 1914.

5. That the affairs, business and property of this corporation shall be managed, controlled and conducted by a Board of Directors and such officers and agents as the Board of Directors shall designate, elect or appoint.

The board of directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than eleven shareholders. The number of directors elected at each annual meeting of the shareholders shall constitute the board for the ensuing year. The directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held on the second Tuesday of January of each year, and shall hold their offices as such until the next regular annual election takes place, and until their successors are chosen and have qualified.

That the following named persons duly elected are now acting and qualified as the directors of said corporation to serve until the election of their successors, and their respective places or residence are, as follows, to-wit:

Epes Randolph, residence, Tucson, Arizona.
Charles E. Walker, residence, Tucson, Arizona.
P. D. Overfield, residence, Casa Grande, Arizona.
G. F. Gallagher, residence, Casa Grande, Arizona.
Don A. Trekell, residence, Casa Grande, Arizona.
C. Howard Davis, residence, Casa Grande, Arizona.
W. P. Clements, residence, Casa Grande, Arizona.

The directors shall have power to adopt, amend or repeal such by-laws, from time to time, as they may think proper; and to appoint or elect such officers and agents as may in their judgment be required to transact the business of the corporation; and shall have power to fill vacancies in the board of directors occurring from any cause.

6. That the highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which the corporation is at any time to subject itself, except for deposits received, shall not exceed two-thirds of the amount of the capital stock.

7. That the stockholders of this corporation shall not be liable for its corporate debts and liabilities, and their private property shall be forever exempt from any and all debts and liabilities of this corporation, except to the extent, and in the manner as provided by Section 11 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Arizona.

The appointment of J. P. Cleveland of Phoenix, Arizona, as agent for this corporation, upon whom all notices and processes, including service of summons, may be served, is hereby revoked.

In Witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names this 19th day of June, 1920.

MICKIE SAYS

WE DON'T KNOW

Why should men of forty and older seek brides in girls of twenty? Mark McNatt puts on a new "Choosing a Wife," Sunday night, Oct3, that may explain. 2t

Oh, girl! What did you think when he stopped calling regular and ceased to stay as late as usual? It's a terrible feeling, isn't it, to find that some other girl has "cut you out" with the chap you really love? That's all part of a man's thoughtlessness in "Choosing a Wife." They have no mercy for a woman's heart. It's time they got a good demonstration of how a woman feels and what she suffers just because a man is blinded by some girl with brighter cheeks or more stylish clothes. Bring them along for a twin treat at the Oasis Theater, Sunday evening October 3rd.

A REGULAR GOVERNOR

(From Tucson Citizen.)

THOS. E CAMPBELL, who has served the people of Arizona as governor for the past two years, has proven himself to be a real governor for all the people, every standpoint. In fact, he is the only regular governor Arizona has had since statehood. Elected on the Republican ticket, he has been in no sense a partisan, but has been governor for all the people, and not of any particular class. The working man has come to understand that he can always get a fair deal from Tom Campbell, that he is independent, honest and square and beholden to no man or group of men.

Through his defense of the little fellow and the effort of some of the big interests to rob the people of Arizona of a great heritage of public lands, Governor Campbell has provoked some opposition, but every fair-minded man and woman who has the interest of Arizona at heart, must recognize that his position in this matter is right and just and is taking the stand that he has, he is guarding the interests of all of the people.

Tom Campbell is every inch a governor. He looks and acts the part. He is a creditable representative of the people of Arizona at home and abroad. Born in this state, he is a type of our most rugged citizenship, an intensely patriotic son of Arizona.

With all the handicaps in the way of shortage of labor, high costs of both labor and material and inadequate funds, by the end of the year Arizona will have doubled the mileage of improved roads under the administration of Tom Campbell.

As president of the League of the Southwest, an organization of the governors and leading men of eight arid land states, he has started a most practical reclamation enterprise, which has for its object the pooling of the interests of these states at Washington, educating congress on the needs and opportunities for reclamation, securing the passage of a measure for the expansion of the reclamation service and some definite results along this line.

Also he has inaugurated a policy for state aid to smaller reclamation projects, which, if given the opportunity during the next two years, he is certain to put through along with the national reclamation enterprise, of which he is the head and moving spirit.

Under the administration of Tom Campbell, Arizona has enjoyed industrial peace. There has been no trouble and no scandal. It must be admitted, even by his opponents, that Tom Campbell has the interests of Arizona at heart, that he has given the people the best that is in him, and that he has made a creditable and successful governor.

Could any citizen ask more of any man?

What, then, is the practical thing for the people of Arizona to do in the coming election, laying aside party prejudices to centre on the job a man tried and true, who is doing something really constructive for his native state and getting results, or to put in a man of unknown administrative ability, of no special training or experience, with no outstanding record of accomplishment, simply a politician who plays politics every day in the year?

We think that when it comes to choosing a governor this year, the people of Arizona are going to lay aside political considerations, consider the welfare of their state and give the man who has served them faithfully and well an opportunity to carry out the big programs of improvement, development and conservation of their resources, which he has undertaken in their behalf.
