Miss Caledonia French

Nov 22 1883

Dear Miss I again embrace the opportunity of writing you another Letter in answer to yours which I received to day which I read with great pleasure & when I had read it about half down my heart short with joy for to know & see a letter which I knew the one she had written which I love & esteem above all others

Miss Donnie I have not knew that would interest you if I could see you I could write I allways hand
