ANCESTOR'S SERVICES

The said Thomas Manley who resided during the American Revolution at Massachusetts assisted in establishing American Independence, while acting in the capacity of serving on the Committee of Safety & Correspondence, 1776.

My ancestor's services during the Revolutionary War were as follows:

Serving on the Committee of Safety & Correspondence, Easton, Massachusetts, 1776 from: The Manley Family of Easton, Mass by Fannie Smith Spurling, p.12 (attached to gen. 4 cover sheet).

See also: History of the Town of Easton, Mass. by William L. Chaffin, 1886 p.217 (attached to gen. 7 cover sheet).

Give references by volume and page to the documentary or other authorities for MILITARY RECORD: Where reference is made to unpublished or inaccessible records of service, the applicant must file the official copy.

ELIGIBILITY CLAUSE

"Any woman is eligible for membership in the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is not less than eighteen years of age, and who is descended from a man or woman who, with unflinching loyalty to the cause of American Independence, served as a sailor, or as a soldier or civil officer in one of the several Colonies or States, or in the United Colonies or States, or as a recognized patriot, or rendered material aid thereto; provided the applicant is personally acceptable to the Society." (Constitution, Article III, Section 1.)

Marriage in every instance means legal and lawful marriage. Date of marriage may be substituted for dates of birth and death where such date proves the soldier to have been living during the Revolution and of a suitable age for service.

The following form of acknowledgement is required:

Applicant further says that the said Thomas Manley (name of ancestor from whom eligibility is derived) is the ancestor mentioned in the foregoing application, and that the statements hereinafter set forth are true to the best of her knowledge and belief.

This applicant also pledges allegiance to the United States of America and agrees to support its Constitution. This applies to applicants for membership within the United States of America and its territories.
