Revolutionary Ancestor JOB MARION

ELIGIBILITY CLAUSE

"Any woman is eligible for membership in the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is not less than eighteen years of age, and who is descended from a man or woman who, with unflinching loyalty to the cause of American Independence, served as a sailor, or as a soldier or civil officer in one of the several Colonies or States, or in the United Colonies or States, or as a recognized patriot, or rendered material aid thereto; provided the applicant is personally acceptable to the Society." (Bylaws, Article III, Section 1.)

Applicant must provide documentation proving lineal descent for each statement of birth, marriage and death. This shall include a birth certificate naming her parents. Data submitted as proof is subject to DAR standards and interpretation. This applies to "new ancestors" and previously accepted lineage for which documentation was not required at the time of acceptance.

Applicant further says that the said JOB MARION (name of ancestor) is her ancestor and that the statements set forth are true to the best of her knowledge and belief.

The applicant also pledges allegiance to the United States of America and agrees to support its Constitution. This applies to applicants for membership within the United States of America and its territories.

This provides detailed research for Job Marion in 1845, citing deeds, civil offices, and his will. This is used to connect to his son as well. Job based upon best estimate, since his son was born in the 1780's last likely. Job was at least 21y in 1757 when he was his mother's executor to her will (Charleston Co, SC Wills, vol 12, 1767-1771, p 536); brother Benjamin Marion (established) is estimated to be born 1720.
