Death of J. L. Weaver.

After but a couple of week's sickness John L. Weaver breathed his last Saturday afternoon, March 17, 1900, at his home 3 miles east from Hill City. He was taken down with a cold a short time ago, which rapidly developed into typhoid-pneumonia, and although, he struggled against the fatal disease, his vital powers at his advanced age, were not strong enough to withstand it. Mr. Weaver was conscious to the last and died peacefully surrounded by his sorrowing wife and all his family. The funeral took place last Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of General Shedd Post, G. A. R. of which he was an honored member. The services were held at the house and conducted by Rev. MacDuffy, after which the Grand Army men took charge of the body and laid it to rest in the Hill City cemetery. The funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen here.

John L. Weaver was born in Coopers Town, N. Y., the 21 of February 1841 and lived in that state until he enlisted in 1861 in Co. E, 51st Regiment N. Y. Infantry. He served during the entire civil war and was wounded at the Battle of Bull Run, Aug. 30, 1862. He was discharged as sergeant-major Nov. 11, 1865.

He came to Nebraska in 1863 where the following year he married Lucretia Cramer. In 1885 he moved to the Hills where he lived in Buffalo Gap and Hermosa until in 1890 he removed with his family to this place.

He leaves a wife and seven children, two of whom are married, Mrs. Arthur Lauders and Mrs. Ruth Lintz.

DEATH SUMMONS LUCRETIA WEAVER

Mrs. Lucretia Weaver passed away at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David Lints on Charles street in this city. The remains will be taken to her home at Hill City tomorrow morning and the funeral will take place there Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Weaver was born at Quincy, Ill., fifty four years ago. When a child her people moved to Fremont, Neb., where she resided until after her marriage to John Weaver in 1869. They moved to the Black Hills in 1885 and settled at Hermosa and in 1898 took up their home at Hill City. Mr. Weaver died eight years ago and his widow has since resided at the Hill City home. She always enjoyed good health up to six months ago when she was attacked by dropsy and to this she finally succumbed. Three weeks ago she felt somewhat improved and decided to visit her daughters in Deadwood. On arriving here she had a relapse and grew gradually worse until she passed away yesterday. Mrs. Weaver was a woman of many excellent qualities and an affectionate, loving mother.

She is survived by seven children, two sons and five daughters. The eldest son, Leland, resides at Spokane, Wash.; John lives at Hill City; Mrs. Robt. Baldwin, Mrs. Arthur Landers and Mrs. David Lints reside in Deadwood; Mrs. Wicks lives at Hill City as does the youngest daughter Bernice. Her sister, Mrs. Emma Castelle, has arrived from La Junta, Colo., to be present at the funeral and it is expected that other near relatives will arrive today.
