To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter as explanation of lack of documentation regarding Marion Frances Boyle's (1914-1995) name change at death. Marion Frances Boyle was married to John Eddy Desmond, per Marriage Record provided. After the birth of their son, James Eddy Desmond (birth certificate provided,) Marion and John were divorced - probably around 1937. Marion then married a Mr. Kelley, also likely around 1937. They were divorced at some point and she married Herman LaCivita — likely in the late 40s early 50s. I have been unsuccessful in finding documents for these subsequent marriages because I do not know when or in what state they occurred. I have unsuccessfully searched Glens Falls, NY, where I know Marion and Herman resided for many years and where Herman LaCivita's family lived. I have also searched Florida marriage indexes because I know they lived in Ft. Lauderdale in 1955. However, in both cases, no marriage records could be found.

The only written reference I could find to her multiple name changes is from the U.S., Social Security Applications and Claims Index, 1936-2007 [database on-line]. I realize this is not considered a primary source, but it seems to be all the information that is publicly accessible to me other than oral family history.
